Participant Responsibilities & Guidelines

- Participants must complete talent on their own. *Adult assistance will not be allowed in any youth act.
- Acts may consist of more than one person, however, participants are only allowed to enter as part of one act in one age group. If a group is entered they will have to compete in the age group of the eldest contestant.
- Participants are responsible for providing their own costumes and props.
- Participants must provide their own music on a CD clearly marked with the appropriate song number and title for the sound crew.
- Participants must check in on time (5:15 PM). Failure to check-in on time for the show may result in your act being canceled.

- Acts are limited to 4 minutes.
- This is a family event. Use of foul language or inappropriate behavior will cause immediate disqualification from the Talent Show.

Questions regarding rules and regulations may be directed to Stephanie Roybal or Valorie Nelson 970-524-7514.

Thank you for entering...see you on July 19th at 5:15pm! NO PARKING WILL BE AVAILABLE BEHIND LUNDGREN THEATER. Please park at the Gypsum Sports Complex, 3295 Cooley Mesa Road.
